SUPERVISOR HAAS INVITES STUDENTS TO VOLUNTEER

This Weekend's Garden District Neighborhood Association Festival Relies on Volunteer Support

Milwaukee, WI – Supervisor Jason Haas is pleased to announce an opportunity for high school and college students to gain volunteer credit by working at the Garden District Neighborhood Association Festival, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 27 - 29, 2012.

“Volunteering is important for both individuals and their communities as it provides everyone involved with feelings of pride and accomplishment,” noted Supervisor Haas.

“Additionally, student volunteers can receive class credit for lending their time and talents to the 2nd Annual Garden District Days Festival, and I encourage them to do so.”

The weekend festival, which is set to be held at S. 5th Street and W. Layton Avenue, features live music, free children’s activities, food and beverage vendors, rides and games as well as the Garden District Neighborhood Association Farmers’ Market on Saturday, July 28 from 1 to 4 p.m.

Anyone interested in volunteering should contact Dawn Reigel at jdreigel@msn.com or 414-380-9047.

“I also personally welcome people who live in the 14th Supervisory District and beyond to enjoy the Garden District Days Festival; it’s a perfect example of the many summertime celebrations that make Milwaukee County a vibrant place to live, work and play.”
